BUFFALO THUNDER APPRECIATES SERVICE INDUSTRY

SANTA FE, NM – Buffalo Thunder Resort and Casino has just launched the new Sin Night, an evening to honor New Mexico's service industry.

"We invite Santa Fe's hospitality industry workers to join us at Buffalo Thunder," says Paul Aragon, Pueblo of Pojoaque's Director of Hospitality. "For those individuals working in local restaurants, bars, spas, hotels, shops, museums, tour companies, or any other segment of the hospitality business, we'll be offering a 25% discount."

The service industry will be offered a 25% discount off of food at the Red Sage and Turquoise Trail and weekly drink promotions at Red Sage and Blue Tower. The Sin City Monday night events will include karaoke contests at Blue Tower where winners will receive cash prizes.

"You serve us all weekend so this is our opportunity to roll out the red carpet for you," adds Aragon. "For all of your hard work you do we'd like to offer you your Friday night."

110,000 people, or 10 % of New Mexico workforce, are part of New Mexico's travel and leisure industry. 7,000 of them are in Santa Fe County.
