NEW YEAR'S EVE GALA WITH TOBIAS RENE AT BUFFALO THUNDER KING OF NEW MEXICO MUSIC WILL KEEP DANCE FLOOR PACKED ALL NIGHT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Wednesday, Dec. 29, 2010

Santa Fe, New Mexico —Anyone looking for something fun and special to do this New Year's Eve has to head up to Buffalo Thunder Resort & Casino to catch Tobias Rene's high-energy concert. Buffalo Thunder party-goers will bring in 2011 with Rene and his special music guests, dancing, party favors and Champagne.

"I'm looking forward to putting on a great show with New Mexico music heavyweight Gonzalo, the famous sister-duo Sorela and Erika Bonilla. They will be joining me on stage for the big New Year's Eve Gala at Buffalo Thunder."

The concert will be high-energy from the first song to the last with a mix of New Mexican, Spanish, Country, Funk and some Rock.

"I'm looking forward to seeing all of my friends and fans from up North," adds Rene. "Buffalo Thunder's Tewa Ballroom will be packed with people dressed in their New Year's best, dancing the night away. I always enjoy performing at Buffalo Thunder. It's a classy resort and a special place to bring in 2011."

Tobias will perform many songs from his new best-selling album "Feel the Heat" including "CuCuRooCuCu Paloma" with Barilla. The song is a duet about a dove crying lost love. "Feel the Heat" was released in October 2010.

Tobias Rene has been performing as a solo artist for 10 years and other than his one year recording a Country album in Nashville in 2005; he has lived in New Mexico all 36 years of his life. He is currently the liaison and spokesperson for the New Mexico music industry to add a new category of "New Mexico Spanish Music" to both the Grammy Awards and the Latin Grammy Awards. He has earned the title "King of New Mexico Music" from his adoring fans due to the astonishing hits from his first CD, "Por Primera Vez," released in 1999. His second CD, "Con Ganas," was released in 2001.

Tobias Rene has received numerous awards throughout his career for his musical talents and accomplishments. He received twelve Hispano Music Awards after the release of his first CD in 1999. These included Male Vocalist of the Year, Band of the Year, CD of the Year and Song of the Year.

Tobias grew up in Santa Fe, attended St. Mike's High School and went on to the University of New Mexico where he studied Business and Marketing.
